

Oh give me a home
Where the buffalo roamed
Manitoba's the place I would choose
But I think I will cry
For the rents are too high
And I surely cannot afford shoes.

I'm hopin' for change
A little food, some clothing and shoes
But all the money's been spent
On exorbitant rent
And today I am singing the blues

- Written by Lynda Trono, 2012